On November 21, 2022 at 1322 hours, Sgt. Wilson and myself made contact with Fisher-Edington Funeral Home Director Brian James. Sgt. Wilson asked Mr. James if he remember Casey Pitzer funeral back in 2013. Mr. James stated he did. Sgt. Wilson asked if he remembers what was done with Casey's clothes once she was brought to the funeral home. Mr. James stated he kept them for less than a day but the smell was so horrible that he threw them in the trash. Mr. James advised the smell of the clothes were making the whole funeral home smell bad and he thought that no family member would want something that smelled that terrible. Mr. James stated he doesn't know where the rumor started of the clothes being burned, but he advised that he, himself threw the clothes in the garbage and didn't burn them. Mr. James provided us documentation of the funeral. These documents were turned over to Chief Fithen and copies were made and placed with the case file.
